Product description

This high-quality bumper for the Porsche Panamera G1/970.1 is an essential replacement part for the front of your vehicle. It is specially equipped with holes for the headlight washer system (SWA) and parking aid (PDC), which increases functionality and comfort while driving. The bumper is already painted in an elegant black, which allows you to instantly upgrade the look of your vehicle and save on additional painting costs.

The bumper is new, unused and undamaged, ensuring a long service life and excellent quality. It meets the high standards of Porsche original parts, guaranteeing a perfect fit and trouble-free installation. The OEM number for this part is 97050591141041, which makes it easy to check compatibility with your vehicle model.

This product is ideal for Porsche Panamera owners looking for a reliable replacement for the front bumper that is both functional and aesthetically pleasing. Not only does it protect the front components of your car, but it also supports integrated technologies such as headlight cleaning and parking assistance.
